

INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY 2009

AWARDS LUNCHEON FRIDAY, MARCH 6 - The Biltmore Hotel

International Women's Day has been celebrated by the United Nations since 1975. The UN's annual commemoration serves to focus attention on the rights of women around the world. Also, it highlights women's issues globally and focuses on their achievements.

Beginning in 2004, the World Trade Center Miami established International Women's Day to honor women executives in Florida whose achievements have advanced the promotion of free trade and international business in the Americas. More than 400 international executives/media have attended the event annually. Join the World Trade Center Miami to celebrate the sixth annual International Women's Day Awards Luncheon honoring six outstanding women who have advanced the promotion of free trade and international business in Florida.
